The Legislative Rule-Making Review Committee met in the Senate Judiciary Committee Room at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, August 23, 2017. The meeting was called to order by the Chair, Senator Maynard. A silent roll call was taken by the Clerk as reflected above. Staff present included: Jeff Johnson, Senate Counsel; Jennifer Greenlief, Senate Counsel; Noelle Starek, Senate Counsel; Sarah Canterbury Senate Counsel; Brian Casto, House Counsel; Charlie Roskovensky, House Counsel; Arlie Hubbard, House Counsel; Jared Wyrick, Director; James Fuerhoff, House Clerk; Kim Jeffrey, House Clerk; and Mark White, House Clerk.

Delegate Sobonya moved that the following procedural rules be adopted to govern the Legislative Rule-Making Review Committee in its deliberations:

(1) Quorum – A quorum of the committee and any subcommittees created from the committee shall consist of not less than 51% of the members of the Senate and 51% of the members of the House of Delegates. In the absence of a quorum, no procedural or substantive action may be taken by the Committee or by any subcommittee with regard to proposed legislation: Provided, That the absence of a quorum shall not prohibit consideration and discussion of proposed legislation before the committee, or the presentation by interested citizens of their views regarding such proposed legislation. The absence of a quorum shall not prohibit a majority of the members present from directing staff to prepare proposed drafts or to conduct research concerning proposed legislation for presentation at a future meeting of the subcommittee.

(2) Voting – Except as provided in paragraph (1) above, action proposed by the committee or a subcommittee thereof requires a majority vote of the quorum present.

(3) Minutes – Minutes of all meetings of the Committee shall be prepared by staff for approval of the Committee at a subsequent meeting. For his or her convenience in preparing minutes, the responsible staff person may electronically record the meeting for clerical use. However, once the minutes for a particular meeting have been approved, they shall stand as the sole record of the proceedings.

(4) Applicability of procedural rules of the Senate and House of Delegates – To the extent that they are not inconsistent, the procedural rules of the Senate and House of Delegates shall apply to all meetings of the Committee and to all subcommittee meetings. In the event of an inconsistency between such rules, the Co-Chairs of the Committee or Subcommittee who is chairing the particular meeting shall apply the rule or rules of the house of which he or she is a member.
